Orange Bay Foods Conducts Hand Washing Lesson at Schools in Japan

Company encourages safe practices at home and in school

Yawatahama-shi, Ehime, Japan, September 11, 2018 – Orange Bay Foods employees presented a lesson on proper hand washing to local school children this month as part of the company’s Food Safety Week. The program was presented at two elementary schools and a high school.

The OBF employees took part in the demonstration, working side by side with the children to make this lesson in proper hygiene both fun and effective.

A local TV station, with the support of Ehime Bank, covered these lessons as part of their news program. Click here to watch the video!
