OSI Oakland Supports First Responders Family Night Out

Aurora, IL, USA, August 27, 2018 – OSI Oakland took part in a rewarding community event on August 26, 2018. Materials Manager Matt Opbroek and GOF Superintendent Tony Friemark presented a donation of hot dogs for the annual Cass County First Responders Family Night Out, sponsored by the police department in nearby Atlantic, Iowa.

The Atlantic First Responders and Police Department Reserves provided a free meal, photo booth, cotton candy, face painting, air brush tattoos, dunk tank, and other activities and goodies to celebrate first responders and allow area residents meet the law enforcement community while having some fun.
