OSI Poland Receives First Prize at National Labor Inspectorate Awards

Company is recognized for outstanding health and safety

Ostróda, Poland, December 1, 2015 – The National Labor Inspectorate in Poland organizes an awards ceremony on an annual basis to recognize businesses that have achieved a high safety record, ensured the health of its employees, followed all legal requirements and are seen as a solid and reliable employer.

This is a prestigious ceremony that allows employers to promote best practices in workplace safety and to be recognized for taking action to reduce risks within the workplace.

The competition has a range of criteria, which includes work law compliance, occupational health and safety compliance, health and safety systems, accidents, internal actions and communication.

The awards comprise of 2 stages; the first is local (for provinces) and the second is national.

OSI Food Solutions Poland was delighted to take first place for the Warmia & Masuria Province for medium-sized enterprises. The company was then put forward to compete for the national award where OSI was also successful. As a result, OSI Food Solutions in Ostróda, Poland is now included in the 'GOLD POLISH EMPLOYERS LIST' and the company was awarded a special statuette by the National Labor Inspectorate.

The National Labor Inspectorate Award was received by Waldemar Kowalkowski, Managing Director, OSI Food Solutions Poland.
